Dispatcher: Sanford Fire and Police Department. The line is recorded. [Unintelligible.]

George: Hey. Our neighborhood got burglarized, or robbed, today. And my wife saw one of the kids that did it. And we see someone that matches his description in the neighborhood right now—again.

Dispatcher: Okay. And what is your address out there?

George: I'd rather not give out my address because he is, obviously, in the neighborhood. But it is Retreat View Circle. You can use 1111, which is the club house.

Dispatcher: Okay. So, does he live in the neighborhood? Or, he is just out walking?

George: I don't know. This is the first time that I have ever seen him.

Dispatcher: Okay. And what is your name?

George: My name is George.

Dispatcher: And your last name, George?

George: Zimmerman.

Dispatcher: And your phone number you are calling from?

George: (407) 435-2400.

Dispatcher: Okay. And is he white, black, or Hispanic?

George: Black. My wife...

Dispatcher: And what is he wearing?

George: ... talked to a Detective Walker and gave him a description of the guy we see now.

Dispatcher: Okay. And what is he wearing right now?

George: A white tank top and black shorts. Brown sandals and black socks.

Shellie: [Unintelligible.] ... other sidewalk.

Dispatcher: Okay. And is he walking?

George: Yes.

Dispatcher: Okay. And, so, is he near the ... ?

George: The back entrance to the neighborhood.

Dispatcher: So, he is at the back entrance?

George: Yeah.

Shellie: He just went between the houses now.

George to Shellie: He just went between the houses, to the back?

Shellie: Yep.

George: Shoot.

Shellie: He is looking at cars.

George: I'm going to ...

Shellie: No you're not.

George: Why not?

Shellie: 'Cause. Don't go out there.

Dispatcher: Okay. We'll get an officer out there to check the area.

George: Okay. Thanks.

Dispatcher: You're welcome.

SECOND CALL

Phone Call History | Page 40 | 08/06/2011 @ 22:20:32

Dispatcher: Sanford Fire and Police Department. This line is recorded. This is Nicole. How can I help you?

George: Hi. There was a break-in in my neighborhood recently.

Dispatcher: Mmhum.

George: And two youths that match the description of the people—my wife id'd them and saw them--they are back in the neighborhood.

Dispatcher: What is the address?

George: You can use 1111 Retreat View Circle. Sanford, Florida. Or, you know that, correct?

Dispatcher: Is that the Twin Lake townhomes?

George: Yes. Yes.

Dispatcher: Okay. And, are they—what do they look like? Are they white, black, or Hispanic?

George: Black males. Two black males in their late teens. One is wearing a black, ah, white [unintelligible] black tank top, and black shorts. And the other one is wearing a black shirt and blue jeans. And they are at the back gate of the neighborhood.

Dispatcher: Okay. Approximately how old are they?

George: Late teens.

Dispatcher: Okay. Do you want to leave your name or number?

George: I can leave my name and my number; and, I'll actually be at the back gate to let the officers in because there is no code there.

Dispatcher: Umhum. What is your name?

George: It's George. And it is (407) 435-2400.

Dispatcher: Okay.

George: If you'll let the officers know—they typically run away quickly. And I think they head over to the neighborhood—the next neighborhood over. So, you may want to send a unit over to Calabria Cove.

Dispatcher: What is it called?

George: Calabria Cove.

Dispatcher: Okay. Calabria Cove. Alright. I'll let them know; and, they are on their way. Okay.

George: Okay. Thanks.

Dispatcher: Alright. Thank you. Bye Bye.

THIRD CALL

Phone Call History | Page 41 | 09/23/2011 @ 23:08:52

Dispatcher: Sanford Police Department. This line is being recorded. This is Vicky.

George: Hi, Vicky. My name is George; and, I live at the Retreat at Twin Lakes subdivision?

Dispatcher: Okay.

George: I'm part of the Neighborhood Watch? And I just wanted to let you guys know that somebody left—we've had—we've been plagued with robberies; burglaries?

Dispatcher: Mmhum.

George: And, somebody did leave their garage door opened?

Dispatcher: Hold on, sir, one second. {Snipped unrelated conversation.} Okay, somebody has got their garage door open, you said?

George: Yes, ma'am.

Dispatcher: Okay. Do you know the address of where the garage door is opened?

George: As far as I can tell—because it is poorly lit—I believe it is 2040 Retreat View Circle. Of course, Sanford, Florida.

Dispatcher: Okay. And then you said there have been a lot of break-ins there, lately?

George: Yes, ma'am. We've, actually, just had our Neighborhood Watch meeting yesterday. And Sgt. Kirks came out here; and Officer Buchanan.

Dispatcher: Okay.

George: And told us to report anything suspicious. Since it is late, and they usually don't have their garage door open all night, so.

Dispatcher: Okay. George, what is your last name?

George: Zimmerman.

Dispatcher: And what is the telephone number, in case we need to call you back?

George: (407) 435-2400.

Dispatcher: Okay. Are there any cars in the garage; or the driveway— just so we can make sure

...

George: There is.

Dispatcher: ... we are going to the right...

George: Yep. In the garage, there is a silver Nissan Xterra.

Dispatcher: Okay. We've already got an officer heading that way, sir.

George: Thank you, ma'am. Have a good night.

Dispatcher: Sure, thank you. You, too. Bye Bye.

George: Bye Bye.

FOURTH CALL

Phone Call History | Page 42 | 10/01/2011 @ 00:53:35

Dispatcher: Sanford Police. [Unintelligible.]

George: Hi. I was just calling because we've had a lot of break-ins in the neighborhood recently; and, I'm on the Neighborhood Watch? And, there is two suspicious characters at the gate of my neighborhood. I've never seen them before. I have no idea what they are doing. They are just hanging out—loitering.

Dispatcher: What is the address?

George: 1111 Retreat View Circle. And that is Sanford, Florida.

Dispatcher: Is that the Twin Lakes Townhouses?

George: Yes, ma'am. No. Retreat at Twin Lakes. Yes.

Dispatcher: So, yes—that was Twin Lakes Townhouses?

George: Yes, ma'am.

Dispatcher: Okay. Great. Can I get your name and a call back number?

George: George. And it is (407) 435-2400.

Dispatcher: Okay, George. Can I get a last name?

George: Zimmerman.

Dispatcher: Okay, Mr. Zimmerman. Can you describe the two individuals?

George: Two African American males. They look—I know one was in a white Impala.

Dispatcher: How old did they look to you?

George: Mid to late twenties—early thirties.

Dispatcher: They are in a Chevy Impala? Did you get a license plate?

George: A white—no. It is a white Chevrolet sedan. It is either an Impala or a Lumina. I think it is an Impala.

Dispatcher: Can you still see them?

George: No, ma'am. I didn't want to attract attention.

Dispatcher: How long ago were they out there?

George: Just 10 seconds ago. I just called—I called as soon as I saw...

Dispatcher: Alright. We'll send someone out there to see what we can do. Okay?

George: Thank you, ma'am. And have a great night.

Dispatcher: You, too. Bye Bye.

George: Bye.

FIFTH CALL

Dispatcher: Sanford Police Department. Line is recorded. Karlette speaking.

George: Hi. I'm sorry—did you say Karlotte?

Dispatcher: Karlette.

George: Karlette. My name is George, and, I live in—well, we'll say the seventeen hundred block at Retreat View Circle, in Sanford, Florida.

Dispatcher: Okay.

George: And the kids in the neighborhood have gotten accustomed to playing in the street. And it is pretty habitual now. They play in the street, and they just run out in front of cars. And it always seems to be around dusk.

Dispatcher: Is it happening now?

George: Yes.

Dispatcher: Okay. What is the address? Where are we going to? May I have your address, please?

George: Well, it is not in front of my house. But the address is, like, ahh—I guess you could put it on 1720 Retreat View Circle.

Dispatcher: Retreat?

George: Yes, ma'am. R-E-T-R-E-A-T View ...

Dispatcher: Okay.

George: ... Circle

Dispatcher: Retreat View Circle.

George: Obviously, it is not an emergency. I'm just concerned for their safety. And for the drivers in the neighborhood.

Dispatcher: Okay. And they are in front of this—they are right in front of this location?

George: Yes. They are playing in front of the houses—in the street. And they are running...

Dispatcher: How many of them are there?

George: Probably about five or six. They are, you know, under twelve years old.

Dispatcher: Okay. And, are they males or females? Or—white, black, or Hispanic?

George: All mixes. All ages.

Dispatcher: Okay. May I have your name, please? You said, George.
George: George. Mmhum.
Dispatcher: Can I have your phone number?
George: (407) 435-2400.
Dispatcher: And, George, what is your last name?
George: Zimmerman. Z-I-M-M-E-R-M-A-N.
Dispatcher: And you said they do this every day?
George: Well, they don't—not every day. But, it is very frequent. At least three times a week.
Dispatcher: And about how old are they?
George: They are—I've seen kids that, you know are, look like they are four or five years old; to, ten, eleven. And there is several of them. So.
Dispatcher: Okay. We'll have someone around.
George: Okay. Thank you.
Dispatcher: Alright. Thank you. Bye Bye
George: Oh! Ma'am—I'm sorry. Are you still there?
Dispatcher: Yes
George: Obviously, since I live in the neighborhood, I would rather keep it anonymous. I don't to cause any t ...
Dispatcher: Oh, of course. We won't. Yeah. We won't let them know that you called. Not a problem.
George: I'll appreciate it.
Dispatcher: Your welcome.
George: Have a great night.
Dispatcher: You too. Bye Bye
George: Bye Bye.

SIXTH CALL

Phone Call History| Page 45 | Connection: 02/02/2012 @ 20:29:35

Dispatcher: Sanford Police Department. This line is being recorded. This is Rene.
George: Hey. Can I get an officer 1960 Retreat View Circle?
Dispatcher: Your name?
George: George.
Dispatcher: You said 1960?
George: Yes. 1-9-6-0. [Cross talking.]
Dispatcher: What is going on there, George?
George: I'm with the Neighborhood Watch; and, we've had some burglaries and vandalisms lately. And, now, this gentleman was walking in the neighborhood. And, I've seen him before--on trash days—going around and picking up trash. I don't know what his deal is. [Cross talking.]
Dispatcher: Is he white, black or Hispanic?
George: Black.
Dispatcher: What is he wearing?
George: He is wearing—black leather jacket; a black bomber hat. [Cross talking.]
Dispatcher: A black, what kind of hat?

George: Like a bomber hat. Like the ones that have the ears—like, that you can fold down.

Dispatcher: Okay. A black leather jacket. A black hat. And what else?

George: And, like, flannel, printed pajama pants.

Dispatcher: And what is he doing?

George: He keeps going to this guy's house. I know him—I know the resident. He is Caucasian. And, he is going up to the house; and then going along the side of it. And, then coming to the street; and then going back to the side of it. I don't know what he is doing. I don't want to approach him, personally. If you have an officer available, I'd probably have him stop on Rinehart—across the street from Altermese Bentley; and, go around the back.

Dispatcher: Okay, George. What is your telephone number you can be reached at?

George: (407) 435-2400.

Dispatcher: Okay. So, we'll get someone out there. Thanks for calling.

George: Good. 'Bye.
