RE:	Tracy Martin and Sybrina Fulton Interview	CASE NO:
NARRATIVE

3/26/2012, 9:40 am - Myself and Bernie de la Rionda met with the victim's parents Tracy Martin and Sybrina Fulton. Also present were their Attorneys. The parents are divorced but have remained friends. Tracy advised that he has a girlfriend named [REDACTED] who lives in Sanford, Fl. Tracy, Sybrina and the Victim live in [REDACTED]. On the Wednesday before the shooting, Tracy met [REDACTED] half way between Miami and Sanford where he dropped the Victim off with [REDACTED]. The Victim was going to stay at [REDACTED] apartment in Sanford. The Victim stayed with [REDACTED] Wednesday and Thursday night.

On Friday, Tracy came to a convention in the Oriando area and was staying in a motel. On Friday night, the Victim stayed at the motel with Tracy. A cousin named [REDACTED] also came into town and was with the Victim and [REDACTED]. Tracy advised that on Sunday, they were back at [REDACTED] apartment. He and [REDACTED] went out to eat. When he returned home that night, the Victim was not home. [REDACTED] had said that the Victim went to the store but didn't return. Tracy tried to call the Victim on his cell phone several times but he would not answer. The next morning, Tracy called the police to report the victim missing and soon after the police responded and told him about the incident.

Sybrina advised that she was in Miami and last saw her son on the Wednesday before the shooting. The parents advised that the Victim was a very good son and was very affectionate and still had a baby face. The Victim had taken interest in Aviation in the 9th grade. The Victim was currently in the 11th grade. Tracy advised that he coached the Miramar Optimist Club Little League Football and was the Commissioner of the Park. The Victim would help him cook, clean and set up the field.
