JAIL CALL 18533166 Total time on tape 00:11:47 (Transcription begins 00:02:17)

Information from recording: Date: 2012/4/12, Time: 16:43:27, dialed number [REDACTED]

(Recorded calling directions)

RECORDING: Hello, you have a prepaid call from

ZIMMERMAN: George Zimmerman (recorded directions) This call will be recorded and subject to monitoring at any time. Thank you for using Inmate Calling Solutions. You may begin speaking now.

ZIMMERMAN: Hey honey.

SHELLIE: Hey baby.

ZIMMERMAN: Hey you-you can hit five like as soon as you start hearing them talk.

SHELLIE: Oh okay, I-I don't, I don't want to run the risk of like disconnecting us

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah

SHELLIE: so I'm always like hesitant, but okay.

ZIMMERMAN: Gracie did that, I was like holy cow, how did you cut all that out?

SHELLIE: Wow, (inaudible)

ZIMMERMAN: So I thought if you can and,

SHELLIE: Good, you did it, okay

ZIMMERMAN: um, Gracie conferenced us.

SHELLIE: Oh okay, cause he said he wasn't finished

ZIMMERMAN: judging it up

SHELLIE: yeah cause he was on the way to, where he was going.

ZIMMERMAN: I know and I told him I would ask you if you could uh.

SHELLIE: Oh that's like an idea.

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah

SHELLIE: Well. Do you need to talk to him right now?

ZIMMERMAN: No, no but I'm just saying um, you know, it (inaudible due to talking over)

SHELLIE: Yeah if he can't do it then I definitely can, yeah.

ZIMMERMAN: Okay, if he, I mean, it's for me. I don't see why he's paying for it.

SHELLIE: OH, you're right, you're right, okay, I see, I did Mark O'Mara.

ZIMMERMAN: You did already?

SHELLIE: Yeah

ZIMMERMAN: Did you text him?

SHELLIE: Yes I did.

ZIMMERMAN: Did he text you back?

SHELLIE: No, but I told him that you would be calling and that it would most likely be a 407-688 number or similar but that you would be calling him shortly.

ZIMMERMAN: Oh, you're so good.

SHELLIE: Yeah. And said or similar.

ZIMMERMAN: Okay

SHELLIE: You know, cause he's probably getting bombarded but I want him to know like,

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah

SHELLIE: you know. Huh?

ZIMMERMAN: Uh, what was I gonna say? Um. So Ken's looking to call you and get the key to do that? Take care of that portion stuff.

SHELLIE: Absolutely yeah, I'll do it for sure. I've heard, I totally forgot that I could do that for him. I don't even know what I was thinking.

ZIMMERMAN: (inaudible due to talking over)

SHELLIE: I was just,

ZIMMERMAN: my account

SHELLIE: huh?

ZIMMERMAN: From my account.

SHELLIE: Well yeah of course, well from mine, yeah.

ZIMMERMAN: You let him know, he's going to call you and when you, when you talk to him, take care of my account so that you can log in.

SHELLIE: Yeah, I know.

ZIMMERMAN: You know what I'm talking about, right?

SHELLIE: What we had just talked about.

ZIMMERMAN: Earlier. Not this phone call. When I said I had $44.46. Hello?

SHELLIE: Yeah?

ZIMMERMAN: Remember I said, you need to call him and so he can reset it, the password and the security questions are something that you can use?

SHELLIE: Yeah

ZIMMERMAN: Like when you log in and it gives you all of those security questions and you'll know the answers?

SHELLIE: Yeah

ZIMMERMAN: So you have to do that with him over the phone.

SHELLIE: I know

ZIMMERMAN: Okay

SHELLIE: That's what I was just saying, the passwords and stuff.

ZIMMERMAN: (inaudible due to talking over)

SHELLIE: But I can't do it because he's on his way to take his wife somewhere.

ZIMMERMAN: (inaudible due to talking over) I know, I know, I'm just saying, when he does, don't forget to do that.

SHELLIE: Oh yeah, no I know. Don't worry cutie. Don't even worry.

ZIMMERMAN: Ah man, that feels good. That's a good (inaudible due to talking over)

SHELLIE: What?

ZIMMERMAN: That (inaudible) I care.

SHELLIE: Yeah, they do, trust me. And boy, after that happened yesterday, he said like, so many people, your-your site kept crashing.

ZIMMERMAN: Wow

SHELLIE: He said people were just trying to give you, you know, words of support and kindness.

ZIMMERMAN: Good. Wow, that is awesome.

SHELLIE: Yeah

ZIMMERMAN: They need to, and to talk to uh, O'Mara about getting the word out because I mean those people need to start vocalizing themselves.

SHELLIE: Right

ZIMMERMAN: But. We'll talk (inaudible due to talking over)

SHELLIE: (inaudible due to talking over)

ZIMMERMAN: I'll call him, after I talk to Glendle. Uh

SHELLIE: Yeah

ZIMMERMAN: it makes me feel happy and to lay here and um be okay.

SHELLIE: I'm so happy to know that you're gonna be okay.

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah. And we're gonna be okay but, I'm happy to know that you won't be.

SHELLIE: No. After this, we go over, you're gonna be able to just, have a great life.

ZIMMERMAN: We will.

SHELLIE: Yeah, we will. You're

ZIMMERMAN: I'm (inaudible) excited.

SHELLIE: Yeah, you should be. You should be excited.

ZIMMERMAN: Uh, what are you doing now?

SHELLIE: I'm actually just in my room laying down.

ZIMMERMAN: Oh, cool. I'm happy I set it

SHELLIE: (inaudible)

ZIMMERMAN: up for you before I left.

SHELLIE: Huh?

ZIMMERMAN: I'm happy I set it up for you before I left.

SHELLIE: Set what up?

ZIMMERMAN: The room.

SHELLIE: Yeah

ZIMMERMAN: Yep

SHELLIE: I wish you were here of course but.

ZIMMERMAN: I will be.

SHELLIE: I know you will be. I know it like I visualize you walking through that door.

ZIMMERMAN: I will be.

SHELLIE: I know you will be. This, isn't that crazy how something like this just makes you, like put everything in perspective in life?

ZIMMERMAN: Yep

SHELLIE: It's-it's amazing how insignificant the things that we stress out over are.

ZIMMERMAN: Yep

SHELLIE: It's, it's amazing.

ZIMMERMAN: I know. I agree.

SHELLIE: But what it has really showed me is, just to even, be so grateful even for this. I know it sounds crazy but for me I'm so grateful to even talk to you.

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah

SHELLIE: To even know you're alive.

ZIMMERMAN: Me too.

SHELLIE: So what are you doing?

ZIMMERMAN: Just laying down. I think I'm not gonna be in here for (inaudible)

SHELLIE: Oh good

ZIMMERMAN: I had one earlier today.

SHELLIE: Good

ZIMMERMAN: Because I didn't take my medicine (inaudible)

SHELLIE: Oh, I'm sorry.

ZIMMERMAN: It's okay.

SHELLIE: So you tell them you take that?

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah

SHELLIE: For that? Like three times a day.

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah, they didn't know if they'd be able to get that or not but (inaudible)

SHELLIE: Okay

ZIMMERMAN: They would definitely be able to do the uh, what's the antidepressant called?

SHELLIE: The nighttime one?

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah, (inaudible)

SHELLIE: Yeah

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah

SHELLIE: I don't even remember.

ZIMMERMAN: Remeral (sp)

SHELLIE: That's it. They said it was like Respiradol (sp) but I don't think that's it.

ZIMMERMAN: No, it's Mirtazapine, Mirtazapine

SHELLIE: Yeah

ZIMMERMAN: But it's Remeral (sp) and

SHELLIE: Oh, (inaudible) I'm looking at you right now, on TV (chuckles)

ZIMMERMAN: (chuckles) and uh, yeah I think that's it.

SHELLIE: Yeah okay, Mirtazapine, that's right. Of course I'm just saying that stuff because I had heard in nursing school.

ZIMMERMAN: They were able to do that and Tylenol for my back and my Adderall.

SHELLIE: Oh good

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah

SHELLIE: Good, good, um, good. So you say you're laying down?

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah

SHELLIE: Uh, is it like a portable phone or on a cord?

ZIMMERMAN: It's on a cord.

SHELLIE: Oh okay, well that's okay.

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah I know the cord is long I can, we can talk on it, on it

SHELLIE: Yeah

ZIMMERMAN: from (inaudible) I mean I'm laying in the bed.

SHELLIE: Yeah

ZIMMERMAN: It's fine (inaudible)

SHELLIE: That's good

ZIMMERMAN: cover up so I don't, (inaudible) try and keep warm.

SHELLIE: Uh huh

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah

SHELLIE: Uh huh, hmm

ZIMMERMAN: What are you gonna do for the rest of the night?

SHELLIE: Uh, pick up somebody.

ZIMMERMAN: Oh, good, good, good, good, good, good. You need that.

SHELLIE: I know. That's why I was so happy when

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah

SHELLIE: they said they were gonna come, I was like (makes sound).

ZIMMERMAN: Is it just her?

SHELLIE: Yeah

ZIMMERMAN: Okay

SHELLIE: But it's kinda like

ZIMMERMAN: Oop, (inaudible)

SHELLIE: Okay. Huh?

ZIMMERMAN: Thank you sir, thank you sir. Hello?

SHELLIE: Hi

ZIMMERMAN: Hey. Um. So yeah I think she (inaudible due to low speaking)

Information from recording: Date: 2012/4/15, Time: 15:29:04, dialed number [REDACTED]

(Recorded calling directions)

RECORDING: Hello, you have a prepaid (beep) This call will be recorded and subject to monitoring at any time. Thank you for using Inmate Calling Solutions. You may begin speaking now.

ZIMMERMAN: Hey honey

SHELLIE: Hey babe

ZIMMERMAN: How are you?

SHELLIE: Good, how are you?

ZIMMERMAN: Good, can you hear me?

SHELLIE: Yeah

ZIMMERMAN: Oh good. What are you up to?

SHELLIE: Oh I just got off the phone with Ken.

ZIMMERMAN: Oh good, did you guys do that? Did you take care of SHELLIE: Oh we tried, but there is no way we can get in.

ZIMMERMAN: He can't get in anymore?

SHELLIE: He can on his um, his computer,

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah

SHELLIE: but because mine isn't registered, it asked me all these security questions and

ZIMMERMAN: I know, I know

SHELLIE: man, we cannot figure it out.

ZIMMERMAN: Honey, I'm-I'm-I'm, you need to get on the phone with him

SHELLIE: Okay

ZIMMERMAN: and have him reset them on his side, to things that you can answer.

SHELLIE: Okay

ZIMMERMAN: He

SHELLIE: Um

ZIMMERMAN: he needs to log in as me, and then, with you on the phone, like if they ask like what's your favorite chips, have them, you know, whatever your favorite chips are

SHELLIE: Okay

ZIMMERMAN: he needs to reset them.

SHELLIE: Let me, I'm gonna call him on the other phone while I have you on and I'm gonna call him that.

ZIMMERMAN: Okay. And you need to reset the password. He-he needs to reset the password like something that you can understand.

SHELLIE: Oh my gosh, I can't believe I forgot about that. Okay, hey Scott, I'm on the phone with uh George

ZIMMERMAN: Shell

SHELLIE: and, he's on my other phone.

ZIMMERMAN: Shell

SHELLIE: And uh, he's just saying

ZIMMERMAN: Shell

SHELLIE: that what we needed to do was not what we did. What we'd have to do is because the computer's not registered

ZIMMERMAN: Shell

SHELLIE: so, what we have to do is, the computer that you have registered where you don't get those security questions, you-you have to go in and change them so that you can change those security questions that way I can get in and we have to do that on the phone so I know the answers to that. Something that I can remember. Okay, so, I'm gonna um talk to George and, then whenever you get a chance, um, a little bit later, just call me and we'll do that. Okay, all right, thanks, thanks a lot, all right bye. Hello?

ZIMMERMAN: Now do you understand?

SHELLIE: Yes and he understands

ZIMMERMAN: Okay

SHELLIE: (inaudible) he was like ohh

ZIMMERMAN: You know that way you can log in whenever you want (inaudible) change the password to something you remember.

SHELLIE: Okay, okay

ZIMMERMAN: Change the password, and he logs in,

SHELLIE: Uh huh

ZIMMERMAN: and he changes the password and all those questions to something you can remember and please (inaudible)

SHELLIE: And we do it together, that way I can do it from my computer.

ZIMMERMAN: Right, right.

SHELLIE: Oh okay, okay, okay. All right, he was doing some stuff with the website and everything.

ZIMMERMAN: Okay please write it down and please put it in

SHELLIE: Yeah

ZIMMERMAN: password uh keeper in your phone if you can. Write

SHELLIE: Okay

ZIMMERMAN: write it down in a few places.

SHELLIE: Okay

ZIMMERMAN: That way you can go in on your own and do it,

SHELLIE: Okay

ZIMMERMAN: without having to rely on somebody else.

SHELLIE: Okay

ZIMMERMAN: Um. What else? I had a good dream but now I can't remember what it was.

SHELLIE: They're overnighting your glasses.

ZIMMERMAN: Oh, he doesn't have to do that.

SHELLIE: Well, the attorney said just to make sure that just in case they don't um

ZIMMERMAN: Gotcha, okay

SHELLIE: give em to ya, you can have them.

ZIMMERMAN: Okay

SHELLIE: So you can see.

ZIMMERMAN: Okay

SHELLIE: So.

ZIMMERMAN: Ann's doing so good with listening I'm so proud of him.

SHELLIE: I know, did you call him?

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah

SHELLIE: Good

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah. It helped me a lot.

SHELLIE: Yeah

ZIMMERMAN: Uh huh

SHELLIE: He's so cute. He-he was telling me yesterday it's like, your baby is so well taken care of. He's like, today (chuckles) he was like yeah, the college party.

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah I know, how funny is that?

SHELLIE: He's running around with all the people like.

ZIMMERMAN: (inaudible)

SHELLIE: (inaudible) oh my God, you're so crazy.

ZIMMERMAN: I know.

SHELLIE: Hanging out with all the older women.

ZIMMERMAN: Everything happens for a reason you know.

SHELLIE: Uh huh, uh huh

ZIMMERMAN: There's a reason he's there and,

SHELLIE: Yeah

ZIMMERMAN: to be, looking after him and,

SHELLIE: I know, it's crazy how everything works out, right?

ZIMMERMAN: Uh huh, yep.

SHELLIE: It's just crazy.

ZIMMERMAN: Man I can't remember what the dream was but it was really nice. It was like, I bought you something that you always wanted. I don't remember what it was.

SHELLIE: Oh honey, you don't need to worry about that cutie.

ZIMMERMAN: I wish I could remember, it was like a, a nice scarf or something.

SHELLIE: Oh, you're so cute. I love you so much.

ZIMMERMAN: I love you so much.

SHELLIE: Oh, so um, it looks like I got the house.

ZIMMERMAN: Oh good. Good, good, good.

SHELLIE: Yeah, so I was actually um, talking to your mom when you, uh called in.

ZIMMERMAN: Do they know to do it all under Jay's name?

SHELLIE: To put it under his name

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah

SHELLIE: so give them like a cashier's check, right?

ZIMMERMAN: Right

SHELLIE: Yeah, (inaudible) like a lot of bedrooms

ZIMMERMAN: I-I heard they had four.

SHELLIE: Five

ZIMMERMAN: Okay, good. Good.

SHELLIE: Yeah

ZIMMERMAN: So then

SHELLIE: Yeah

ZIMMERMAN: they can go there and be like a, you know, have their little home and,

SHELLIE: Yeah, but you only wanted me to do it for a month, right?

ZIMMERMAN: That's all that was available. He said it was four weeks.

SHELLIE: Yeah, that's what he told me. Yeah, he told me a month.

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah

SHELLIE: So

ZIMMERMAN: Did,

SHELLIE: Okay

ZIMMERMAN: did Ken take care of it today?

SHELLIE: No, because it's already 24 hours.

ZIMMERMAN: So he did it, oh, okay

SHELLIE: He did it yesterday.

ZIMMERMAN: Around what time?

SHELLIE: Um, it was like, eight o'clock, I wanna say.

ZIMMERMAN: At night?

SHELLIE: Yeah

ZIMMERMAN: Oh shucks okay

SHELLIE: Or like seven, six, seven, eight o'clock.

ZIMMERMAN: Oh okay, well did you, maybe you should set a reminder on your phone.

SHELLIE: Okay

ZIMMERMAN: You know like for every day

SHELLIE: Yeah

ZIMMERMAN: (inaudible) another call for 7:30

SHELLIE: Well hopefully (inaudible) we'll be able to sit down and, do that.

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah, but then you should, you know, you still need to be reminded to do it.

SHELLIE: Yeah I know. You're right.

ZIMMERMAN: That's good. Did the chaplain call you anymore?

SHELLIE: Uh-uh

ZIMMERMAN: Hmm

SHELLIE: Uh-uh

ZIMMERMAN: Well I told him that you probably wouldn't answer because you don't answer phone numbers you don't see.

SHELLIE: Uh huh

ZIMMERMAN: Leave a message and you'd probably call him back so.

SHELLIE: Well I do, because I think it's gonna be you.

ZIMMERMAN: Oh okay.

SHELLIE: So. But when he was asking hi is this, you know, I was like uh, who's this.

ZIMMERMAN: Oh so you actually talked to him?

SHELLIE: Yeah, I told you that.

ZIMMERMAN: Oh no, I thought you, he left a voice mail.

SHELLIE: Oh no, I talked to him and I was like, you know, thank you so much for (inaudible) driving, so,

ZIMMERMAN: Oh

SHELLIE: they, you know

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah

SHELLIE: right now, calling for the best time but, and then, (inaudible) Susie wrote down his phone number.

ZIMMERMAN: Oh okay. Gotcha, gotcha, gotcha

SHELLIE: Yeah

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah

SHELLIE: But um. (inaudible)

ZIMMERMAN: I'm excited, tomorrow's shower day.

SHELLIE: I know.

ZIMMERMAN: And tomorrow (inaudible) and did-did what I say earlier make sense?

SHELLIE: Uh huh, yep.

ZIMMERMAN: About her? Putting in the Florida address and?

SHELLIE: Uh huh but she doesn't need that.

ZIMMERMAN: She does not?

SHELLIE: Nope, I already looked

ZIMMERMAN: You're certain

SHELLIE: it's a US citizen, yep

ZIMMERMAN: Okay

SHELLIE: (inaudible) qualifications, (inaudible)

ZIMMERMAN: Okay

SHELLIE: I mean, US citizen

ZIMMERMAN: Okay

SHELLIE: Yeah. I mean he didn't look at driver's license

ZIMMERMAN: (inaudible) of course. I'm so grateful that they're able to do that.

SHELLIE: Uh huh, uh huh, she's so good and so supportive, so awesome.

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah, I know.

SHELLIE: So, um. Yeah.

ZIMMERMAN: You know what you could do?

SHELLIE: What?

ZIMMERMAN: Um. I'm trying to think, cause you're gonna take out $10 and put it, and keep it with you, in cash, right? So that you, less than (inaudible)

SHELLIE: Well, yeah like nine.

ZIMMERMAN: Right. Um. Let's just say about $10. I'm wondering, you have more than $10, right?

SHELLIE: Not with me.

ZIMMERMAN: You don't have access to more than $10?

SHELLIE: I do. I have access to, yeah.

ZIMMERMAN: In your account?

SHELLIE: Yes

ZIMMERMAN: Right. That's what I'm saying. So if you have more than $10 then you can, maybe that same day, put 10 in hers and she can take the 10 out

SHELLIE: Uh huh

ZIMMERMAN: and put the, so take your 10 out first, to keep in your pocket,

SHELLIE: Uh huh

ZIMMERMAN: and then, at the institution, see if you can, put 10 into hers right away.

SHELLIE: Uh huh

ZIMMERMAN: And see if she can take 10, that 10 out and put it in the, in the box there.

SHELLIE: I thought you wanted me to take 10 out and keep it and then put 10 in the box.

ZIMMERMAN: If you can, but, I'm-I'm thinking that they're not gonna let you do that.

SHELLIE: Um.

ZIMMERMAN: Either way, it'll be fine.

SHELLIE: Well it won't matter because once she has an account I can transfer that to her.

ZIMMERMAN: Right, right, I'm just saying so you wouldn't have to go back to the bank to put 10 in the box.

SHELLIE: So then you would want like a total of like $20 in the box?

ZIMMERMAN: Um, no, I just want 10 in the box.

SHELLIE: Okay, all right. You're saying if they won't let me do that, do that?

ZIMMERMAN: Right

SHELLIE: But just the total, like $10, okay.

ZIMMERMAN: Right

SHELLIE: Okay

ZIMMERMAN: And um. Yeah I think that's it.

SHELLIE: Okay

ZIMMERMAN: Um. Yeah and tomorrow's shower day.

SHELLIE: Yay

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah.

SHELLIE: That's good.

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah

SHELLIE: That's gonna be nice. Soon you'll be able to shower whenever you want.

ZIMMERMAN: I know. It's so funny. I went from that shower in heaven to,

SHELLIE: I know

ZIMMERMAN: waiting for shower day. (chuckles)

SHELLIE: I know, but, this is only temporary.

ZIMMERMAN: I know. Um, my dad's really confident about everything. I don't know what was said in that meeting but my dad seemed very, very confident.

SHELLIE: Yeah, everyone is. You should be too. Trust me. Yeah, I don't wanna talk about it but, so trust me. The least I talk about it you should know the better.

ZIMMERMAN: Okay

SHELLIE: Believe me, and um, um, that's all I'm gonna say. Just trust me.

ZIMMERMAN: Okay. It's not just Bob being Bob?

SHELLIE: Oh no, oh no-no, no, we-we wanted to celebrate.

ZIMMERMAN: Okay

SHELLIE: Trust me.

ZIMMERMAN: All right

SHELLIE: Susie and I and everyone wanted to celebrate.

ZIMMERMAN: Okay

SHELLIE: Our safety council and them were like oh my gosh.

ZIMMERMAN: Okay

SHELLIE: He's amazing.

ZIMMERMAN: Good. What's amazing? O'Mara?

SHELLIE: Uh huh

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah, he is, he's pretty cool.

SHELLIE: Yeah, yeah, but we saw like a different side of him so many times, like, just even different sides, so we're just like, whoa.

ZIMMERMAN: Is that good?

SHELLIE: Yeah, yeah, trust me, I'm telling you right now like, just anything that he does that seemed harsh, I have so much confidence in him, after that meeting, that I will do whatever he says.

ZIMMERMAN: Okay

SHELLIE: If we had Sonner, I would be like eh, I don't know, let's get another opinion.

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah

SHELLIE: Not with him man. Like he is doing, what's best for you.

ZIMMERMAN: Good

SHELLIE: Yep, what's best for justice.

ZIMMERMAN: Good, that's all I ask.

SHELLIE: Uh huh, uh huh

ZIMMERMAN: What time is boo?

SHELLIE: It is 3:42.

ZIMMERMAN: Oh okay. I'm-I'm just, I-I gave up on your other phone.

SHELLIE: I know, that's fine.

ZIMMERMAN: Maybe you can see if they can refund you, the money.

SHELLIE: I did, I already did that.

ZIMMERMAN: Oh okay

SHELLIE: Uh huh

ZIMMERMAN: So what's the point of having it then?

SHELLIE: Hmm, I don't know. Oh I'm not talking about that phone's money, I'm talking about the other um

ZIMMERMAN: Great

SHELLIE: company.

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah I know but I'm saying (inaudible) if I can't call you on it then what's the point of even having it?

SHELLIE: Well there is a point, it's just that I have to check why the lock.

ZIMMERMAN: Hmm, okay.

SHELLIE: There is a point

ZIMMERMAN: Okay

SHELLIE: and the point is, even when you get out, at least you'll have it.

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah

SHELLIE: You need to have unlimited minutes.

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah. Can a regular headset jack be plugged into that?

SHELLIE: Um, lemme see, I don't know. There is, I think so, I'm looking at it right now.

ZIMMERMAN: Okay

SHELLIE: Yeah I think so but it comes with a headset.

ZIMMERMAN: Oh okay. (sound) Was that it?

SHELLIE: Yeah

ZIMMERMAN: Oh okay. You like it?

SHELLIE: Um, yeah.

ZIMMERMAN: Okay

SHELLIE: I love it.

ZIMMERMAN: Good well, hopefully I'll get to shave soon and, maybe cut my toenails and, go from there.

SHELLIE: Tomorrow on shower day?

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah

SHELLIE: yep, yep.

ZIMMERMAN: (inaudible)

SHELLIE: That's good

ZIMMERMAN: I hope

RECORDING: One minute remaining

SHELLIE: so

ZIMMERMAN: All right, what time is it?

SHELLIE: It's 3:44

ZIMMERMAN: 3:44, okay

SHELLIE: Okay honey

ZIMMERMAN: I love you

SHELLIE: Hopefully, talk to you soon baby boy and

ZIMMERMAN: I'll try

SHELLIE: you can call uh Ken

ZIMMERMAN: Okay

SHELLIE: I love you

ZIMMERMAN: Why don't you, you're gonna call him and do that now, right? And you know what to do now, right?

SHELLIE: No, he's doing something else with the (inaudible) he's gonna call me.

ZIMMERMAN: Okay, I love you.

SHELLIE: But you call him and tell him.

ZIMMERMAN: Okay, I love you.

SHELLIE: I love you more babe.

ZIMMERMAN: All right bye.

SHELLIE: Bye.

RECORDING: Hello, you have a prepaid call from (beep) This call will be recorded and subject to monitoring at any time. Thank you for using Inmate Calling Solutions. You may begin speaking now.

ZIMMERMAN: Hello?

SHELLIE: Honey

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah

SHELLIE: Are you there?

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah

SHELLIE: Can I put you on speaker phone?

ZIMMERMAN: Yes please but remember, no, no personal information.

SHELLIE: Okay, okay, all right, hold on, I'm putting him on speaker phone but we're not gonna say the name of the institution or your name or any personal information, recorded. Okay you're on speaker phone.

ZIMMERMAN: Hello?

SHELLIE: Okay

ZIMMERMAN: Hello?

SHELLIE: We need to figure out um, how to reset his password, so that I can log into his account for him

CU OFFICIAL: (inaudible) logged in

SHELLIE: I have everything. Because he was in a different location than me, so I started using a different computer. And it would ask you the security question.

CU OFFICIAL: Um. Are you there?

ZIMMERMAN: Yes I am

CU OFFICIAL: Okay. Is it okay to re, to reset to your um, last four of your Social?

ZIMMERMAN: [REDACTED]

CU OFFICIAL: [REDACTED] Okay. Um cancelling the enrollment

ZIMMERMAN: What's that?

CU OFFICIAL: Set it up with [REDACTED] so you have to go in and re-do the whole thing.

SHELLIE: Are they still going to do um, his, security questions? Is there any way that you could take that off of there?

CU OFFICIAL: That's why I'm cancelling the whole thing.

SHELLIE: (inaudible background conversation) so set it up. [REDACTED] Is it still gonna be his user name though?

CU OFFICIAL: It's doesn't have a user name.

SHELLIE: Okay. (inaudible) Okay.

ZIMMERMAN: Can, can you go to a computer in the lobby and have her look over your shoulder while you do it?

SHELLIE: Can I go into the lobby and have you look over my shoulder while I do it? Okay. So we don't do anything wrong. Okay?

ZIMMERMAN: And you need to reset it to your email address. Shellie?

SHELLIE: Okay

ZIMMERMAN: And all the questions, look for something you'll remember for sure and write them down please.

SHELLIE: Okay. Okay. Okay. What else?

ZIMMERMAN: That's it, as long as it will give you access, that's what we need to do.

SHELLIE: Okay, as long as it will give me access that's all we need to do. Okay, we're good then, right?

ZIMMERMAN: What about Susie opening up an account?

SHELLIE: What about Susie?

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah, opening up an account.

SHELLIE: Okay, um, we need her to open up an account here. (inaudible background conversation) Okay, hold on. (inaudible) okay honey, we're gonna go into the lobby and do this now. Okay?

ZIMMERMAN: Okay, I'll stay on the line with you.

SHELLIE: Yeah, stay on the line, and actually I'm gonna have you go on the phone with Susie.

ZIMMERMAN: Okay

SHELLIE: Okay, hold on.

SUSIE: Hello honey

ZIMMERMAN: Hey sis. Is she gonna be able to help you?

SUSIE: What'd you say?

ZIMMERMAN: Is she gonna be able to help you?

SUSIE: Yeah

ZIMMERMAN: Oh good.

SUSIE: We're just, getting ready to do a test run.

ZIMMERMAN: Okay, good. Please write down everything this.

SUSIE: Uh huh, definitely

ZIMMERMAN: Don't rely on her to write it down.

SUSIE: Yeah we will. Okay, um, is this it right here? Yeah that's it. It's a number, member number start with a two and ending with a nine?

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah

SUSIE: Yeah, that's not the pass, that's what I gave you, oh okay, okay. (inaudible background conversation) type, type in um, what-what using, like that would be for you.

SHELLIE: Really?

SUSIE: Yeah, (inaudible) yeah. I know that's what it's asking, that what she said it would do.

SHELLIE: Oh really?

SUSIE: Uh huh (inaudible) (inaudible due to whispering?)

ZIMMERMAN: What's going on sis?

SUSIE: (inaudible background conversation) I'm sorry, it's not, it's like it, um declining it, okay, okay, it's working. Oh good. (inaudible) honey?

ZIMMERMAN: Is she going to change everything there?

SUSIE: Uh huh

ZIMMERMAN: Please make the

SUSIE: Uh huh

ZIMMERMAN: Please make the change to the password the question and the email that it goes to.

SUSIE: Yeah, that's what she, the password has already been changed and then um, and then she's, resetting all the questions right now.

ZIMMERMAN: And the email, and the email that it goes to.

SUSIE: Yeah and don't forget honey, change the email when you get in there.

ZIMMERMAN: (inaudible) she'll probably wanna write it down, she'll forget.

SUSIE: And when you, when you get into the account, you wanna change the email that it's in, notices and stuff to your email. Okay.

SHELLIE: I'm writing that all down so.

SUSIE: Yeah okay, she's writing, she's writing them all down.

ZIMMERMAN: Is she resetting the password

SUSIE: Yeah

ZIMMERMAN: to something she'll remember?

SUSIE: Uh huh

ZIMMERMAN: And she has access to the account now?

SUSIE: Yeah

ZIMMERMAN: Tell her to try and transfer into her account from there right now.

SUSIE: Okay, hold on, I'm going to let her, she has to finish

ZIMMERMAN: Okay

SUSIE: answering questions.

ZIMMERMAN: All right

SUSIE: Are you done honey? Cause after we change everything, we gotta um, do a test transfer from here to your account.

SHELLIE: Okay

SUSIE: Okay

ZIMMERMAN: Thank you sis.

SUSIE: Did you take your shower yet?

ZIMMERMAN: No not yet

SUSIE: Oh bummer

ZIMMERMAN: I know. I'll be so relieved when she figu, gets this figured out.

SUSIE: What honey?

ZIMMERMAN: I'll be so relieved when she figures this out.

SUSIE: Uh huh. And by the end of this phone call, that's just what's going to happen? But don't worry.

ZIMMERMAN: Sis, can you write something down?

SUSIE: What love?

ZIMMERMAN: Um, can you, I'm in the, on the table behind you, there should be some withdrawal slips and some pens.

SUSIE: Uh huh, um, no but there's (inaudible) from here in the middle. Um. Yeah I have some, do you want me to take some with me?

ZIMMERMAN: You can write something down?

SUSIE: Sure, wait a minute, let me, let me move over. Okay, wait a second, um, go ahead.

ZIMMERMAN: Um, one is for her to transfer

SUSIE: I'm sorry. (background conversation) Yeah, that's for whoever's that you wanna write down and remember. What'd you say honey?

ZIMMERMAN: Transfer, for her to transfer

SUSIE: Uh huh

ZIMMERMAN: less than $10 into her account from mine.

SUSIE: Okay, uh huh

ZIMMERMAN: And then, two, is for her to log off and try to log back in using her credentials before you leave there.

SUSIE: Uh huh, okay (inaudible)

ZIMMERMAN: And then, three, is to see if she can take $10 out today, another $10, less than $10 and put it

SUSIE: Uh huh

ZIMMERMAN: in her um, in her box there.

SUSIE: In the box?

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah

SUSIE: Okay, all right wait a minute, I'm gonna be back (inaudible). Okay. Um. Transfer less than $10,

ZIMMERMAN: Yep

SUSIE: log in, log out, before we leave to make sure that it's working,

ZIMMERMAN: Yep

SUSIE: and take out less than $10 and put it in the box.

ZIMMERMAN: Yes

SUSIE: Okay

ZIMMERMAN: Thank you

SUSIE: Done.

ZIMMERMAN: How's she coming along now?

SUSIE: What now?

ZIMMERMAN: How's she coming along?

SUSIE: She's just now putting in her new password and getting ready to sign in. Okay. We're in.

ZIMMERMAN: Good

SUSIE: Okay, now honey, these are, these are the things you have to do, these three things right here. Right now transfer less than 10 into your account. Um, it's both of your account should show on here now, right? Should.

ZIMMERMAN: And to transfers

SUSIE: Uh huh. Into yours. Is one of these yours?

ZIMMERMAN: No, she's has to put in her informa, it-it says "to another" at the top.

SUSIE: Yeah. Okay, it says "to another", click on right here. Okay, go ahead and do it.

SHELLIE: How much?

SUSIE: Yeah, three more zeros, okay.

SHELLIE: Right?

SUSIE: Yeah. I don't think it's gonna make you (inaudible) oh up in others account.

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah

SUSIE: (inaudible) Okay, I didn't see it. Okay, there you go now put in your, your number honey. Yep. Uh huh. Okay. Um. Okay. Okay, done. Okay, so that went from there to there and it's confirmed. And then um, so now

ZIMMERMAN: Can she log, log out?

SUSIE: Yeah, log out honey

ZIMMERMAN: Under mine

SUSIE: clear the screen first and then say good-bye. Yeah say good-bye. Now, start over again and log in right here just like you, uh huh, yep. Just to make sure it works. No, it's the account number (background conversation) Oh okay, I'm sorry.

SHELLIE: But I will

SUSIE: Okay, whatever you think.

ZIMMERMAN: You're an angel sis.

SUSIE: You stop it. He's whispering sweet nothings to me. (chuckles) I wanna know your stupid passwords. That's an easy one yeah. I mean you had that little tricky one for

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah

SUSIE: rambles it. Okay. Done. Okay, now just check

RECORDING: One minute remaining.

SUSIE: Okay, we got one minute honey, then call us back.

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah I'll try. But,

SUSIE: Okay

ZIMMERMAN: log out and try to get

SUSIE: yeah we're good. Okay

ZIMMERMAN: some (inaudible)

SUSIE: and now

ZIMMERMAN: and then try and get 10 out from hers

SUSIE: Yeah, yeah

ZIMMERMAN: and put it in the box.

SUSIE: Yeah. Okay. So, now we're gonna take a withdrawal for, get your money out and take it to your box.

ZIMMERMAN: Less than 10.

SUSIE: Yeah, yeah you do.

ZIMMERMAN: She's, yeah she just put it in there.

SUSIE: Yeah, you just put it in there honey.

ZIMMERMAN: Tell her to check right there. (background conversation) Sis?

SUSIE: What honey?

ZIMMERMAN: Tell her to check right there at the computer.

SUSIE: Yeah, check your, log into yours now honey. That's what she's done. Oh God, (inaudible)

ZIMMERMAN: I love you, I'll call you back.

SUSIE: What honey?

ZIMMERMAN: I love you and I'll

SUSIE: I love you too.
ZIMMERMAN: call you right back.
SUSIE: Okay honey.
ZIMMERMAN: All right, thanks, bye.
SUSIE: Ciao

ZIMMERMAN: Hey babe

SHELLIE: Hey honey

ZIMMERMAN: Hey, how are ya?

SHELLIE: I'm great. How are you?

ZIMMERMAN: I'm doing well. You still at the bank?

SHELLIE: Yes I am. I'm just waiting to get into my box.

ZIMMERMAN: Oh okay. Everything worked then?

SHELLIE: Yeah

ZIMMERMAN: Good

SHELLIE: So if that was the final step, you know?

ZIMMERMAN: yeah

SHELLIE: Then we did everything we had to up until now.

ZIMMERMAN: Good, good, good, perfect.

SHELLIE: Uh huh

ZIMMERMAN: So when you get home um, we need to talk, uh maybe um, Susie can text Ken and tell him he can start doing that again.

SHELLIE: Okay, so um, Ken can start doing that again. Into your

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah

SHELLIE: (inaudible) so what we've been doing all along he can start doing again?

ZIMMERMAN: Exactly.

SHELLIE: Okay

ZIMMERMAN: If he, and you

SHELLIE: (inaudible)

ZIMMERMAN: should put a reminder on your phone, to call him and make sure that he does it every day, and that you transfer from mine to yours every day.

SHELLIE: Transfer from mine to yours every day and set an alarm in my phone to remind me, within 24 hours. Okay

ZIMMERMAN: And to remind Ken too. You might have to call him and remind him.

SHELLIE: And to remind Ken too. We've both been doing it?

ZIMMERMAN: No Ken is gonna go from the Peter Pan to me.

SHELLIE: Oh, okay, so, we're gonna set an alarm, to remind us for Ken to put it in his and- and then, put an alarm on mine for, um, for him and to me. Okay.

ZIMMERMAN: Good job. I'm proud of you. I knew you could do it.

SHELLIE: Thanks honey. Yeah, it's so much better now, thank God.

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah, good, good, good.

SHELLIE: Yeah, and we're doing that and then actually when we leave here after I go to the box, we are gonna go ahead and go to um Susie's landlord and get that agreement so that we can be back here before they close so that

ZIMMERMAN: Okay

SHELLIE: she can do her thing.

ZIMMERMAN: Okay. I would just be very careful about telling them when you're coming back or when you're, you know, anything like that.

SHELLIE: Yeah, we haven't, we didn't.

ZIMMERMAN: Because they can call the media in a heartbeat.

SHELLIE: I know. (background conversation) Which house? His? Oh-oh-oh, oh for that (inaudible) anybody? Will they be able to come? Because, I'm gonna mute you, okay?

ZIMMERMAN: Okay

SHELLIE: Okay, you there?

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah

SHELLIE: Hello?

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah I'm here.

SHELLIE: Okay, all right. All righty

ZIMMERMAN: Everything okay?

SHELLIE: Yeah, yeah, yeah, she just didn't understand and I tried to explain it to her.

ZIMMERMAN: Oh okay, and um

SHELLIE: Okay

ZIMMERMAN: we'll just, (inaudible) oh, and when you get home, please um, please pay off all the bills.

SHELLIE: Okay, because now I have access.

ZIMMERMAN: Right and then you can go

SHELLIE: Okay

ZIMMERMAN: into mine and make sure you pay the right American Express and everything. It should say HH American Express.

SHELLIE: Okay, I will

ZIMMERMAN: Pay everything off.

SHELLIE: Okay, but not those two?

ZIMMERMAN: No, not the most two recent (inaudible)

SHELLIE: Oh, okay

ZIMMERMAN: Make sure, even if it doesn't show an amount, make sure to call and, the phone number, you know, should, it should be really easy

SHELLIE: Uh huh

ZIMMERMAN: to find a phone number for all of them.

SHELLIE: Okay, okay

ZIMMERMAN: Call and ask them for the payoff, what's the total payoff.

SHELLIE: Okay, don't worry.

ZIMMERMAN: And remember to send Wendy hers.

SHELLIE: Remember to send

ZIMMERMAN: Wendy (inaudible)

SHELLIE: hers

ZIMMERMAN: Remember to pay Wendy

SHELLIE: Yeah I know.

ZIMMERMAN: Okay

SHELLIE: That's my, one of my priorities.

ZIMMERMAN: Okay, but pay everything totally off, the Sam's Club card, everything except for those two.

SHELLIE: (background conversation) No. (inaudible) I'm sorry, Ken is on the phone.

ZIMMERMAN: Okay

SHELLIE: Um, to get into there now? (background conversation) If you, use the password, okay, so, I should, yeah, I should, I'm gonna mute the phone, okay?

ZIMMERMAN: Okay, please.

SHELLIE: Hello?

ZIMMERMAN: Hey beautiful

SHELLIE: Hey (inaudible) uh Ken, Ken's uh, having a little bit of trouble trying to get in to do that so I sent him something as to lock out

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah

SHELLIE: for him not to do it and to wait until I get home and I can walk him through it on the laptop

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah

SHELLIE: (inaudible)

ZIMMERMAN: Good idea. Hey

SHELLIE: Yeah

ZIMMERMAN: listen to me.

SHELLIE: Okay

ZIMMERMAN: In my account, do I have at least $100?

SHELLIE: (inaudible) deposited (inaudible) at least $100? (background conversation) No.

ZIMMERMAN: How, how, how close am I?

SHELLIE: There's like $8

BACKGROUND VOICE: $8.60

ZIMMERMAN: Really?

SHELLIE: $8.00 and like 60 cents or something.

ZIMMERMAN: Humph. I thought you said there was like (inaudible) total?

SHELLIE: Uh-uh, no, Kevin voided it.

ZIMMERMAN: Oh, okay, so total, everything, how much are we looking at?

SHELLIE: Um, like $155.

ZIMMERMAN: Okay, good. Um, tell Susie, if I were you honey,

SHELLIE: Uh huh

ZIMMERMAN: I would very much like it if you give Susie a copy of all those passwords and the questions.

SHELLIE: Okay, I will.

ZIMMERMAN: (inaudible)

SHELLIE: Absolutely, I agree 100%, she needs to have a copy of that.

ZIMMERMAN: And, I would, when you're there, when you go back with Susie,

SHELLIE: Uh huh

ZIMMERMAN: right away as soon as she gets her account I would put another 10 in hers.

SHELLIE: Okay well we're running into a problem with that.

ZIMMERMAN: What's that?

SHELLIE: He wants me to put, like another $10 in yours. You mean wire it, right?

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah, like the way I (inaudible) from yours to SHELLIE: Yeah, okay, yeah-yeah-yeah, I'm sorry, that's not what I meant. We're not having a problem with that. Sorry. Don't worry.

ZIMMERMAN: (inaudible) transfer to another account (inaudible)

SHELLIE: Uh huh, uh huh

ZIMMERMAN: and just do it, right away, while you're there.

SHELLIE: Yep

ZIMMERMAN: And (inaudible)

SHELLIE: Okay

ZIMMERMAN: just set a, set a reminder in your phone to call

SHELLIE: Okay

ZIMMERMAN: Ken every day.

SHELLIE: Okay

ZIMMERMAN: And (inaudible) put 10 in yours and 10 in Susie's every day.

SHELLIE: Hmm, (inaudible) every day and (inaudible) he's here, go, to the computer and do it directly from, your new one. Okay. And we're gonna set an alarm.

ZIMMERMAN: Okay

SHELLIE: to remind him, okay?

ZIMMERMAN: Good job, I'm so proud of you.

SHELLIE: Thank you honey. I'm proud of you for staying strong. Have you met with him yet?

ZIMMERMAN: No, he came by and he just had me sign a paper real quick, uh, an Order asking the judge to, you know, recuse herself.

SHELLIE: Uh huh

ZIMMERMAN: And he (inaudible) he just came to me (inaudible) and signed it and left. I didn't even talk to him. I asked him how I was gonna get to talk to him and he said, today's been really crazy. He doesn't think so.

SHELLIE: Okay so he didn't see you, he just came in and asked you to sign that?

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah, I mean, he saw me, physically.

SHELLIE: Right, and you signed stating that you were, okay with her

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah

SHELLIE: taking herself off?

ZIMMERMAN: Right

SHELLIE: Oh good.

ZIMMERMAN: So

SHELLIE: Okay, well that's fine.

ZIMMERMAN: (inaudible due to background noise) what time is it?

SHELLIE: Is um, 2:37

ZIMMERMAN: Okay, I'm guessing that we won't know who the new judge is until tomorrow probably.

SHELLIE: Until tomorrow, possibly, yeah

ZIMMERMAN: I'm guessing if he's just now filing it.

SHELLIE: Mmm, yeah

ZIMMERMAN: I have to take a shower.

SHELLIE: You what? You got (inaudible)

ZIMMERMAN: Yep

SHELLIE: Oh God, how was it?

ZIMMERMAN: (inaudible) really good.

SHELLIE: It was really good?

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah

SHELLIE: That's great honey.

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah, the water was really hot, a lot of pressure

SHELLIE: (inaudible)

ZIMMERMAN: (inaudible) thought it would be, you know.

SHELLIE: water pressure. Oh, that is wonderful. I'm so glad.

ZIMMERMAN: And it was private.

SHELLIE: Oh, good

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah

SHELLIE: Good, good, do you feel better?

ZIMMERMAN: Much, yeah.

SHELLIE: Oh I'm so glad honey.

ZIMMERMAN: I'm really glad the way they did it. You know they asked me, they said do you wanna take a little rec first or do you want a shower first, and I said, you know whatever's easier for you guys, cause I know

SHELLIE: Uh huh

ZIMMERMAN: the prisoners go anywhere's that they, hassle for them.

SHELLIE: Uh huh

ZIMMERMAN: So they took me to rec first and (inaudible) that way, you know, I was able to, I got sweaty at rec and (inaudible) a shower.

SHELLIE: Right, right

ZIMMERMAN: I'm happy (inaudible)

SHELLIE: Uh huh

ZIMMERMAN: plate (inaudible) proud of you.

SHELLIE: You what? Say that again.

ZIMMERMAN: I'm very, very proud of you.

SHELLIE: Thank you honey.

ZIMMERMAN: (inaudible)

SHELLIE: I'm very proud of you too.

ZIMMERMAN: Have you looked into the vest anymore?

SHELLIE: Have you looked into the vest? (background conversation) Okay, we have someone helping us with that.

ZIMMERMAN: Okay, and

SHELLIE: Yeah

ZIMMERMAN: you're, you're gonna get three, right?

SHELLIE: Three? Yeah

ZIMMERMAN: One for me, one for you and one for, Mark O'Mara.

SHELLIE: Yep

ZIMMERMAN: Okay good. Is he going to actually like (inaudible)

SHELLIE: Is he going to be out soon Susie? He didn't say but he's coming home tonight.

ZIMMERMAN: Okay

SHELLIE: And we'll be able to talk to him.

ZIMMERMAN: We need to get on it ASAP, cause you know the, the personally I want you wearing one.

SHELLIE: Okay

ZIMMERMAN: As uncomfortable as it is, I want you wearing one.

SHELLIE: Uh huh

ZIMMERMAN: And second of all I want, O'Mara having one.

SHELLIE: Okay

ZIMMERMAN: And third, I would like to have one at least here.

SHELLIE: Absolutely

ZIMMERMAN: I mean we don't know, if you know, if like we get (inaudible) and they couldn't, you know, have a bond hearing tomorrow, you know.

SHELLIE: I know, I know

ZIMMERMAN: So. (inaudible)

SHELLIE: Okay

ZIMMERMAN: Have him get on that ASAP.

SHELLIE: Okay honey, don't worry. We'll, it doesn't have to only be for him though. I could find one on my own.

ZIMMERMAN: Yes, but be careful where you ship it and you know uh, what car you use, what name you use, all that stuff.

SHELLIE: Okay

ZIMMERMAN: You know what I mean?

SHELLIE: Okay, yeah. Yes, he's working on that and he's doing everything for you possible. He wants to be there for you so.

ZIMMERMAN: Okay

SHELLIE: He's happy to do it.

ZIMMERMAN: All right, good.

SHELLIE: We're gonna get it taken care of. Don't you worry.

ZIMMERMAN: Okey dokey. You know what I was thinking?

SHELLIE: What?

ZIMMERMAN: If they, if they do decide to give me bail or bond

SHELLIE: Uh huh

ZIMMERMAN: um, maybe I can just leave from the Sanford Airport and go up to, uh, um, Heaven.

SHELLIE: Well um, okay. And go ahead and (inaudible) (background conversation) thank you.

ZIMMERMAN: You're, you're still waiting for (inaudible)

SHELLIE: I'm still what?

ZIMMERMAN: You're still waiting to get into your car?

SHELLIE: No I'm getting in now.

ZIMMERMAN: I'm so proud of you.

SHELLIE: Yep

ZIMMERMAN: Thank you.

SHELLIE: Of course.

ZIMMERMAN: All right, I'll-I'll call you back (inaudible)

SHELLIE: You don't have to. Do you want to talk to Susie?

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah

SHELLIE: Hold on one second, I'm sorry. All right honey, I love you.

ZIMMERMAN: I love you more (inaudible)

SHELLIE: Hold on one second.

ZIMMERMAN: I'll talk to you later.

ZIMMERMAN: Thank you.

SUSIE: (background conversation) can I call you right back? Okay, thank you, bye. Honey?

ZIMMERMAN: Hey Sunshine

SUSIE: How are you?

ZIMMERMAN: Uh, much better now.

SUSIE: Squeaky clean?

ZIMMERMAN: Yes. Thank you sis for helping her with all that.

SUSIE: No worries.

ZIMMERMAN: Um, can you do me a favor?

SUSIE: Sure

ZIMMERMAN: Can you make sure that as soon as you guys get in

RECORDING: One minute remaining

ZIMMERMAN: as soon as you get into the car you, duplicate the password and all the questions and you keep a copy?

SUSIE: Sure

ZIMMERMAN: All right, and I wouldn't text it to anyone (inaudible)

SUSIE: Yeah, no-no-no

ZIMMERMAN: paper.

SUSIE: Yeah

ZIMMERMAN: You know what I mean?

SUSIE: Yeah definitely. No worries.

ZIMMERMAN: Thank you so much sis.

SUSIE: You're very welcome honey bun.

ZIMMERMAN: You take so much off my plate.

SUSIE: No worries.

ZIMMERMAN: I love you.

SHELLIE: I love you too.

ZIMMERMAN: Talk to you soon.

SHELLIE: Okay, ciao.

ZIMMERMAN: Bye

ZIMMERMAN: Hey honey

SHELLIE: Hey babe

ZIMMERMAN: How are you?

SHELLIE: I'm good, how are you?

ZIMMERMAN: I'm doing well, did they tell you I got to shower?

SHELLIE: Did you what?

ZIMMERMAN: Did I tell you I got to shower?

SHELLIE: Yeah

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah, I feel much better.

SHELLIE: Oh good.

ZIMMERMAN: Uh huh

SHELLIE: Good honey

ZIMMERMAN: What are you up to (inaudible due to talking over)

SHELLIE: ((inaudible due to talking over) we came back to the bank to do that thing, with Susie.

ZIMMERMAN: Oh okay

SHELLIE: We had to go and get that thing taken care of first.

ZIMMERMAN: Oh okay

SHELLIE: And then, you know (inaudible) doing this.

ZIMMERMAN: Gotcha

SHELLIE: So any, and she already went ahead and did it so, we're just kinda finalizing everything.

ZIMMERMAN: Okay, and, is she gonna have a debit card on there? Is she, did she already get it?

SHELLIE: She's ordering one right now.

ZIMMERMAN: Oh okay, but they don't give her like a temporary one or anything?

SHELLIE: No, we already asked.

ZIMMERMAN: Oh, okay

SHELLIE: Why? You need one? I can, we can-we can order checks?

ZIMMERMAN: No-no-no

SHELLIE: I did a temporary check for today.

ZIMMERMAN: Um, yeah, maybe you should (inaudible) get a temporary check but

SHELLIE: They charge, they charged $2 or something, you want me to tell her?

ZIMMERMAN: No, no-no-no, forget it.

SHELLIE: Okay

ZIMMERMAN: It doesn't matter cause

SHELLIE: Yeah

ZIMMERMAN: her mail's going to her new house in Lake Mary, right?

SHELLIE: Yeah

ZIMMERMAN: So, she, I mean, she'll get her card and,

SHELLIE: Uh huh

ZIMMERMAN: within, hopefully, this week?

SHELLIE: Uh huh, uh huh

ZIMMERMAN: Either way, it's fine.

SHELLIE: It shouldn't matter as long as we can do what we've been doing.

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah, exactly.

SHELLIE: Hmm

ZIMMERMAN: Um, I asked Ken to double up on it, do, you know, $10 in the morning and then $10 in the evening. And that way you can put, you know, into mine and then you can take uh 10 for you and 10 for her for Susie.

SHELLIE: Okay, why can't he just do both of em.

ZIMMERMAN: Because he can only take it from Peter Pan to mine.

SHELLIE: Oh okay, okay, right, I need to do that. I don't think they'll let you do it twice a day, will it?

ZIMMERMAN: You can try.

SHELLIE: Yeah, of course I'll try.

ZIMMERMAN: Well you did it today, right?

SHELLIE: Uh huh

ZIMMERMAN: You did it twice today.

SHELLIE: No I didn't. No, I withdrew this morning and I did it once today.

ZIMMERMAN: Oh you withdrew from yours this morning.

SHELLIE: Uh huh

ZIMMERMAN: Oh okay. They're gonna come in for something, just so you

SHELLIE: Huh?

ZIMMERMAN: nothing.

SHELLIE: What'd you say?

ZIMMERMAN: (background conversation) Hello?

SHELLIE: Hello?

ZIMMERMAN: Sorry

SHELLIE: What happened?

ZIMMERMAN: Nothing major, just came to drop off my mail.

SHELLIE: Oh okay

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah

SHELLIE: Did anybody send you anything?

ZIMMERMAN: Uh, yeah, I don't know what it is. Something big.

SHELLIE: Really?

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah

SHELLIE: From who?

ZIMMERMAN: Um, the Barrio Foundation?

SHELLIE: It might be in this uh law group or something.

ZIMMERMAN: What?

SHELLIE: It may be like a law group or something.

ZIMMERMAN: I don't know what it is.

SHELLIE: Okay

ZIMMERMAN: I have no idea what it is. From the barrio to the boardroom, uh.

SHELLIE: What is it?

ZIMMERMAN: From the barrio to the boardroom?

SHELLIE: From the barrio to the boardroom?

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah

SHELLIE: I don't know what that means.

ZIMMERMAN: I don't either.

SHELLIE: Okay, well, is there

ZIMMERMAN: It's like saying from like the hood to the board-boardroom (inaudible) like saying that you can, you know, do good with your life, you know?

SHELLIE: Yeah

ZIMMERMAN: And coming from the hood to

SHELLIE: Right, like inspirational.

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah

SHELLIE: Hmm

ZIMMERMAN: Anyway

SHELLIE: Okay, okay

ZIMMERMAN: How is your day?

SHELLIE: Good, now that I figured all this out.

ZIMMERMAN: I'm so proud of you for doing that. Thank you so much.

SHELLIE: Thank you honey.

ZIMMERMAN: Um, I'm probably not gonna get the phone back after this call so.

SHELLIE: Really honey?

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah, one of the other inmates is asking for it.

SHELLIE: Okay

ZIMMERMAN: When the

SHELLIE: No worries.

ZIMMERMAN: (inaudible) guard comes they're probably gonna take it from me and give it to them so.

SHELLIE: Okay honey

ZIMMERMAN: And I probably

SHELLIE: So, does it give you any sort of solace knowing that this is taken care of now?

ZIMMERMAN: Huge, huge, huge

SHELLIE: Good, good

ZIMMERMAN: So

SHELLIE: I'm so glad.

ZIMMERMAN: what do you have left to do now?

SHELLIE: Just um, get on the computer and do that one more time.

ZIMMERMAN: File extensions?

SHELLIE: No I already did that. I did that last night.

ZIMMERMAN: Pay off, pay off all the bills?

SHELLIE: And it was accepted. It was accepted and granted.

ZIMMERMAN: Good thinking. What about

SHELLIE: Um

ZIMMERMAN: paying all the bills?

SHELLIE: Yeah when I get home yeah

ZIMMERMAN: Okay

SHELLIE: I'm about to say, as of literally at this second

ZIMMERMAN: Uh huh

SHELLIE: before we leave we're gonna try and transfer that (inaudible)

ZIMMERMAN: Oh okay

SHELLIE: Like you asked me to.

ZIMMERMAN: Okay

SHELLIE: To make sure that I can send to her account and, (inaudible)

ZIMMERMAN: Oh thank you

SHELLIE: Uh huh

ZIMMERMAN: Just be smart when you leave honey.

SHELLIE: Of course, of course (inaudible due to talking over)

ZIMMERMAN: If something is even questionable

SHELLIE: Uh huh

ZIMMERMAN: don't go home.

SHELLIE: Yeah, oh I know. We're not going home.

ZIMMERMAN: Okay

SHELLIE: We're meeting up with uh our safety council's wife.

ZIMMERMAN: Okay, all right, good

SHELLIE: Uh huh

ZIMMERMAN: So any new rumors out there about me?

SHELLIE: No actually. No, but we did have to drive by, the Bush Boulevard.

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah, yeah

SHELLIE: And there were like all kinds of vans out there.

ZIMMERMAN: Really?

SHELLIE: Uh huh

ZIMMERMAN: Why?

SHELLIE: Uh huh. I don't know.

ZIMMERMAN: Nothing's going on.

SHELLIE: Well they've been out there.

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah, they-they don't have nothing to do I guess.

SHELLIE: They're wanting to see if anyone (inaudible)

ZIMMERMAN: Right, right, right, right, yeah. That's why I'm glad you guys, I know it's a hard time, believe me, it's just as hard for me, but.

SHELLIE: Yeah

ZIMMERMAN: I'm glad you guys didn't.

SHELLIE: It's harder for you.

ZIMMERMAN: they are (inaudible)

SHELLIE: (inaudible)

ZIMMERMAN: (inaudible)

SHELLIE: Well they're probably just waiting to see if uh, what happens, with-with that judge.

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah, probably, yep.

SHELLIE: I'm sure that's why they're just waiting out there.

ZIMMERMAN: Have you seen,

SHELLIE: Yeah and they're grabbing anything.

ZIMMERMAN: have you seen anything new?

SHELLIE: No but I haven't been watching.

ZIMMERMAN: Hmm, okay

SHELLIE: I have not been watching but um, I can look, it's 4:40

ZIMMERMAN: I talked, I talked to uh [REDACTED] and uh,

SHELLIE: Oh you did?

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah

SHELLIE: You were able to call him?

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah, Gracie gave me his phone number and he set up an account.

SHELLIE: Oh good

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah so I talked to him and [REDACTED]

SHELLIE: How are they?

ZIMMERMAN: Very well.

SHELLIE: Good

ZIMMERMAN: Ann's excited, you know, he, you know

SHELLIE: He's excited about what?

ZIMMERMAN: um, seeing me hopefully, Friday or Saturday

SHELLIE: Yeah

ZIMMERMAN: so. We shall see.

SHELLIE: Uh huh

ZIMMERMAN: Um

SHELLIE: I just googled it, it's not like they, not anything really.

ZIMMERMAN: Well good. Oh, cause you have your other phone too, right? Hello?

SHELLIE: Yeah, uh huh, yeah

ZIMMERMAN: Oh okay. All right. Please try to remember to do those things tonight and.

SHELLIE: To pay those things?

ZIMMERMAN: Huh?

SHELLIE: To pay those things?

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah and to

SHELLIE: Oh

ZIMMERMAN: make the transfers.

SHELLIE: Yeah, I know.

ZIMMERMAN: What did you say? Aww.

SHELLIE: I didn't

ZIMMERMAN: Oh

SHELLIE: I said right

ZIMMERMAN: I thought you saw something, you said aww

SHELLIE: Uh-uh

ZIMMERMAN: Um

SHELLIE: Yeah

ZIMMERMAN: Are they just talking her ear off?

SHELLIE: Who?

ZIMMERMAN: Susie?

SHELLIE: Is she talking my ear off?

ZIMMERMAN: No, are they talking her ear off in there?

SHELLIE: Oh, no.

ZIMMERMAN: Okay

SHELLIE: Uh-uh

ZIMMERMAN: I just heard some guy talking. So I'm like very (inaudible)

SHELLIE: No, no they're at the, they're at the front.

ZIMMERMAN: Oh really?

SHELLIE: She, the guy's at the front, she's in the back.

ZIMMERMAN: Oh, gotcha, gotcha, gotcha, okay. Is it a security guard?

SHELLIE: No

ZIMMERMAN: Do they have one there?

SHELLIE: No

ZIMMERMAN: Oh they usually do. That's what odd.

SHELLIE: There was not one at all here today.

ZIMMERMAN: Humph, curious. Interesting. Oh did I tell you um, that, you-you remember [REDACTED] (inaudible) [REDACTED]

SHELLIE: Uh huh

ZIMMERMAN: Um, she emailed me, um, when I was going to pick you up and she was like, hey, my pastor just wanted me to let you know that you know, they're praying for you and, you know, the whole church is praying for you blah-blah-blah-blah. Um

SHELLIE: Uh huh

ZIMMERMAN: and he, if you can, can you give him a call? So I called him and um, it went to voicemail and I just uh, I just said, you know, thank you for your prayers and I appreciate everything, you know.

SHELLIE: Uh huh

ZIMMERMAN: I know your prayers are heard and, um, I know they're, they're being answered as well blah-blah-blah-blah.

SHELLIE: Uh huh

ZIMMERMAN: Well today, one of the chaplain's comes in and he's like there's a uh Pastor, I don't know his name, from Deltona that said you wanted to see him and I was like, I don't, I don't think so. He's like, he said you called him when you were on your way to turn yourself in and I was like, oh, I was like, oh yeah (inaudible due to background noise)

SHELLIE: Hmm

ZIMMERMAN: So, and

SHELLIE: So did he come and see you?

ZIMMERMAN: No, not yet. He says he's going to, the chaplain here is going to try and arrange it and so.

SHELLIE: And how do you know him?

ZIMMERMAN: [REDACTED] emailed me his name.

SHELLIE: Oh [REDACTED]

ZIMMERMAN: Remember the people that lived next to us? That got broken into?

SHELLIE: Oh, okay, yeah

ZIMMERMAN: (inaudible) [REDACTED] and,

SHELLIE: I thought you were talking about someone else but you were using a different name. Okay.

ZIMMERMAN: No-no-no-no, that's real name.

SHELLIE: Yeah

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah, they uh, you know that she spoke very well about me, right? In the paper?

SHELLIE: Yeah, yeah

ZIMMERMAN: And uh, and-and yes so, apparently that's their pastor. Like, I guess [REDACTED] really involved in the church and um,

SHELLIE: Uh huh

ZIMMERMAN: so, he-he, he wants to try and come see me and so I said (inaudible due to talking over)

SHELLIE: Oh good

ZIMMERMAN: I mean I owe the chaplains here so much and, I can never repay them and,

SHELLIE: I know

ZIMMERMAN: they don't want any re-payment anyway (inaudible due to talking over)

SHELLIE: (inaudible)

ZIMMERMAN: that's what sweet about it.

SHELLIE: That is so sweet.

ZIMMERMAN: They're all very nice guys.

SHELLIE: You're special and amazing role model to people honey

ZIMMERMAN: Hmm, I wish, I wish I were

SHELLIE: (inaudible) you are, you are

ZIMMERMAN: Have you heard from the kids at all?

SHELLIE: No, but remember my number has changed so they couldn't call me if they wanted to.

ZIMMERMAN: You didn't try reaching out to them?

SHELLIE: I didn't what?

ZIMMERMAN: You didn't try reaching out to them?

SHELLIE: No

ZIMMERMAN: Okay

SHELLIE: At this point I really didn't know what to do.

ZIMMERMAN: Okay, no problem

SHELLIE: I have a lot more to do.

ZIMMERMAN: I know. I know, [REDACTED] was like I'm trying to get in touch with Shellie and I was like cousin, I was like, if you, you keep asking me if you can help me. I was like, if you wanna help me just, you know, let Shellie do what she's gotta do. She's got

SHELLIE: Yeah (inaudible due to talking over)

ZIMMERMAN: (inaudible due to talking over) plate.

SHELLIE: Yeah

ZIMMERMAN: And he's like, okay, okay. He's like well next time, you know, you talk to her you just let her know that I'm trying to reach out there and support her and show her love and (inaudible due to talking over)

SHELLIE: (inaudible due to talking over)

ZIMMERMAN: and nothing (inaudible due to background noise)

SHELLIE: That's nice.

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah

SHELLIE: That's nice like. All right. Cutie.

ZIMMERMAN: All righty?

SHELLIE: Okay

ZIMMERMAN: Hey, just in case

SHELLIE: Yeah?

ZIMMERMAN: Ken told me um, about how much we have.

SHELLIE: Yeah

ZIMMERMAN: Um, if it, if it's more than 50, then just pay the 10%.

SHELLIE: If it's more than 50 just pay the 50%? (background conversation)

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah. Are you with me?

SHELLIE: No

ZIMMERMAN: If, if the bond is 50,

SHELLIE: Oh

ZIMMERMAN: if the bond is 50, pay the 15. If it's more than 15, just pay 10% to a bondsman.

SHELLIE: You don't want me to pay $100?

ZIMMERMAN: I don't know (Hell no)

SHELLIE: All right, well just think about it.

ZIMMERMAN: I will

SHELLIE: That's what it's for.

ZIMMERMAN: I know, I know you're right, you're right, maybe that's a discussion that you can have with uh Ken and, make sure you

SHELLIE: Yeah, I will

ZIMMERMAN: and let them know, you know, why I

RECORDING: One minute remaining.

ZIMMERMAN: I wanted to not use a bondsman so that we wouldn't have anyone to answer to and someone, you know, that was constantly trying to get publicity and track

SHELLIE: Right

ZIMMERMAN: and stuff so

SHELLIE: I understand that.

ZIMMERMAN: Share, share that with them and see what they say. I love you.

SHELLIE: Okay, I love you more honey.

ZIMMERMAN: Thank

SHELLIE: Well, she's done now so we're gonna um log in and do that. Okay?

ZIMMERMAN: All right

SHELLIE: Don't worry about a thing, okay?

ZIMMERMAN: (inaudible due to talking over)

SHELLIE: Okay I won't, please keep your chin up honey.

ZIMMERMAN: I will

SHELLIE: You're gonna be out soon, okay?

ZIMMERMAN: Thank you, I love you.

SHELLIE: I love you.

ZIMMERMAN: Bye baby. Hey, Hey

SHELLIE: Bye. Yeah

ZIMMERMAN: What time is it?

SHELLIE: It's-it's-it's 4:47

ZIMMERMAN: Oh, tell uh O'Mara that his office line is still blocked from here.

SHELLIE: Okay honey

ZIMMERMAN: 4:47?

SHELLIE: 4:47.

ZIMMERMAN: All right, love you.

SHELLIE: I love you.

ZIMMERMAN: All right bye.

RECORDING: Hello, you have a prepaid call from

ZIMMERMAN: George Zimmerman

RECORDING: an inmate at Seminole County Detention Center. (account details) (beep) This call will be recorded and subject to monitoring at any time. Thank you for using Inmate Calling Solutions. You may begin speaking now.

ZIMMERMAN: Hey, sorry the phone fell down.

SHELLIE: It's okay honey, I wanted to hear our balance too.

ZIMMERMAN: Oh, okay. So,

SHELLIE: So how are you?

ZIMMERMAN: I'm doing well.

SHELLIE: That's good.

ZIMMERMAN: I put in my order for commissary today, so.

SHELLIE: Oh, good.

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah, so, that'll come tomorrow.

SHELLIE: Good.

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah. What are you up to?

SHELLIE: Nothing. Susie and I are just uh, figuring stuff out with the accounts.

ZIMMERMAN: Oh, okay. Did you pay everything off yesterday?

SHELLIE: Yes I did, I paid all the bills.

ZIMMERMAN: You paid them off, right?

SHELLIE: Well, anything that needed to be paid off, I did.

ZIMMERMAN: Right.

SHELLIE: Um, the only thing that I need to figure out is, who our car insurance is through

ZIMMERMAN: Mercury.

SHELLIE: It is still? I thought we changed it, insurance.

ZIMMERMAN: Oh, you're right, we did, esurance, you're right.

SHELLIE: (Inaudible) figure out our policy number, so I need to call them, but it was too late at night when I did this. So, esurance, and then I need to find out our water bill. It won't let me do it online.

ZIMMERMAN: Oh, okay.

SHELLIE: So, hopefully, somebody will go check the mail

ZIMMERMAN: (Voices blended, inaudible)

SHELLIE: Somebody

ZIMMERMAN: (Voices blended, inaudible)

SHELLIE: Yeah, I know. Those are the only two things. Everything else I paid, like the AmEx I paid off, you know.

ZIMMERMAN: Okay. The Walmart, all that stuff.

SHELLIE: They're, I called all those companies to see the balances, and I paid them all off.

ZIMMERMAN: Oh, good, good, good.

SHELLIE: Yeah, and I even played, paid like your mom, 'cause you know you were paying her monthly.

ZIMMERMAN: Right.

SHELLIE: Um

ZIMMERMAN: Did you pay her off or just pay her monthly?

SHELLIE: Oh, I just paid her monthly thing. I wasn't sure what you wanted me to do so I just paid it. I didn't know what that total was.

ZIMMERMAN: No, that's fine, that's fine. You're doing great.

SHELLIE: And uh, yeah. I uh, I even paid my school.

ZIMMERMAN: Good.

SHELLIE: I didn't pay it off

ZIMMERMAN: Right.

SHELLIE: but I just paid the monthly payment.

ZIMMERMAN: Perfect.

SHELLIE: So, yeah, all that's done, and um, I think Susie and I kinda figured out what your emergency was yesterday.

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah, good.

SHELLIE: About why we need to do that

ZIMMERMAN: Good.

SHELLIE: what we're doing.

ZIMMERMAN: Good. And, so, (Inaudible) doing it?

SHELLIE: So, huh?

ZIMMERMAN: Are you doing it?

SHELLIE: Mm hmm. Mm hmm.

ZIMMERMAN: Is it (Voices blended, inaudible)

SHELLIE: I've already, I've already done it twice today into each, so I've done four.

ZIMMERMAN: Okay, good, good, good.

SHELLIE: Do you want me to do more than that?

ZIMMERMAN: If, if you can, yeah.

SHELLIE: Okay. You know what that would do, right.

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah, well, I mean, leave me with something.

SHELLIE: No, no, no, I'm saying you know what that would do, like in terms of like, hm?

ZIMMERMAN: Yes.

SHELLIE: In terms of what?

ZIMMERMAN: But as long as it goes, it goes into yours immediately, right?

SHELLIE: Yeah, but you know (Inaudible) fees and stuff, right?

ZIMMERMAN: No. No. I don't.

SHELLIE: Like, not, not from our, not from our bank.

ZIMMERMAN: Oh. Darn. No, I don't know, but it's okay, just do what you can.

SHELLIE: Yeah, that's what I (Inaudible) thing, like if we have to pay the piper later down the road, that's fine.

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah.

SHELLIE: So I just wanna get your permission on that.

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah.

SHELLIE: Okay.

ZIMMERMAN: Just do what you have to do.

SHELLIE: Okay, 'cause it's letting me do it like unlimited, so, I, I'm gonna, in a few minutes I'll do another two.

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah, okay, good.

SHELLIE: And it pretty much will be cleared out. Mm hmm. Mm hmm.

ZIMMERMAN: I would say like, leave like, uh, you know, like, a thousand, I guess.

SHELLIE: Mm hmm, mm hmm.

ZIMMERMAN: (Inaudible)

SHELLIE: Yeah, that's what I'll do. I'll leave you with one. Although it's still trickling in, so.

ZIMMERMAN: Okay. Oh, man, I've gotten so many positive letters today.

SHELLIE: You have?

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah.

SHELLIE: Well, let me tell you, all, all morning online we have been reading so many positive um, websites dedicated to a, a more true narrative to you.

ZIMMERMAN: Oh, good.

SHELLIE: Yeah. (Voices blended, inaudible)

ZIMMERMAN: That's good.

SHELLIE: really, really good ones. My brother emailed me, or, texted me at like 3 in the morning and sent me one that was just awesome.

ZIMMERMAN: Oh, good.

SHELLIE: Mm hmm.

ZIMMERMAN: That's reassuring.

SHELLIE: Yeah.

ZIMMERMAN: Have you heard at all from O'Mara?

SHELLIE: I have not heard from O'Mara, but Ken did.

ZIMMERMAN: Oh, really?

SHELLIE: Mm hmm.

ZIMMERMAN: Why?

SHELLIE: Um, they were just, you know, working some stuff out.

ZIMMERMAN: Mm. Okay.

SHELLIE: But I can't, I don't wanna say.

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah, good idea. Okay.

SHELLIE: But just like logistical stuff.

ZIMMERMAN: I gotcha, I got it, I got it. And is it all worked out?

SHELLIE: Um, yeah, yeah, they seem to be positive and, like Ken was saying like I'm feeling much better about this whole thing today after talking to him, so

ZIMMERMAN: Really?

SHELLIE: Yeah.

ZIMMERMAN: Good. Yeah (Voices blended, inaudible)

SHELLIE: mm hmm

ZIMMERMAN: I don't know when I'm gonna get to see him again.

SHELLIE: Mm. I gotta get that bag from him.

ZIMMERMAN: Mm. You know what?

SHELLIE: Huh?

ZIMMERMAN: I said do you know what?

SHELLIE: What?

ZIMMERMAN: I think my passport's in that bag.

SHELLIE: Oh, really. Well, I have one in a safety deposit box.

ZIMMERMAN: Okay, you hold onto them.

SHELLIE: For you. Um, I'm thinking of going to the box because of what Susie and I think that we figured out.

ZIMMERMAN: Mm hmm

SHELLIE: I'm thinking of going to the box that has both of us on it

ZIMMERMAN: Mm hmm.

SHELLIE: over by somewhere else

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah.

SHELLIE: and getting it out.

ZIMMERMAN: Good idea.

SHELLIE: Because I think mine, I think the one that I have only has my name on it.

ZIMMERMAN: I think you're right. You should double check.

SHELLIE: Mm hmm. Because what you told me to do yesterday would then mean that I need to go and get that out.

ZIMMERMAN: Didn't you go to the one that only has your name on it?

SHELLIE: That's what I was just saying, I think it only has my name on it.

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah.

SHELLIE: but you just said double check.

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah, double check, and then Susie can also open one and put some in hers too.

SHELLIE: Oh, that's true.

ZIMMERMAN: Mm hmm.

SHELLIE: Now that she's an account holder.

ZIMMERMAN: And pay for it out of, you know (Voices blended, inaudible)

SHELLIE: Mm hmm. Mm hmm.

ZIMMERMAN: You know what I'm eating?

SHELLIE: What are you eating, honey?

ZIMMERMAN: Hot dogs.

SHELLIE: Hot dogs, dang. That sounds good.

ZIMMERMAN: Mm hmm.

SHELLIE: Hm, you little cutie.

ZIMMERMAN: I feel so bad, there's one guy here

SHELLIE: Mm hmm

ZIMMERMAN: Can you hear me?

SHELLIE: Yeah.

ZIMMERMAN: There's one guy that um, puts his clothes in the laundry and

SHELLIE: Mm hmm

ZIMMERMAN: he never got it back.

SHELLIE: (Gasp) so, is he naked?

ZIMMERMAN: No, he's got his like jumper on but, like he's

SHELLIE: Oh

ZIMMERMAN: (Inaudible) so bad he's so cold. I'm like

SHELLIE: Aww

ZIMMERMAN: even his shoes. He didn't get his shoes back.

SHELLIE: How do you know this? You heard him yelling?

ZIMMERMAN: Well, no, he was just talking.

SHELLIE: To you?

ZIMMERMAN: No, to the guard.

SHELLIE: Oh. Oh, that's sad.

ZIMMERMAN: I know. I wanna give him some of mine, but I don't think they allow that.

SHELLIE: No, I don't think they do either. And uh, you don't even wanna try and say anything.

ZIMMERMAN: Mm. Yeah, I suppose.

SHELLIE: They'll get it to him.

ZIMMERMAN: Nope, they um, they went to um, the uh, unclaimed property

SHELLIE: Mm hmm

ZIMMERMAN: and they gave him like unclaimed like underwear and t-shirts and stuff.

SHELLIE: Oh, my God, but not clean?

ZIMMERMAN: I don't know.

SHELLIE: Well, uh, craziness. Wow. Wow wow wow, and uh, we're working on that other thing.

ZIMMERMAN: Thank you.

SHELLIE: The other thing that we had to do, yesterday with our safety council.

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah.

SHELLIE: Our safety council um, talked with somebody (Inaudible) we're moving on that today, well, we're figuring it out today and then tomorrow he's off so we're gonna have to get that taken care of.

ZIMMERMAN: Okay, good. Thank you.

(Voices blended, inaudible)

SHELLIE: Well, the thing is, some of them, he, he thinks that there's a store

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah

SHELLIE: We called like at least ten different places yesterday, they're all out of business, and what happens is they can't really keep them stocked for a specific reason

ZIMMERMAN: Mm hmm

SHELLIE: so, he thinks that there's a store close by that we can go to, if not, he has several that we can borrow.

ZIMMERMAN: Oh, really?

SHELLIE: That are official.

ZIMMERMAN: Oh, really?

SHELLIE: You know what I'm saying?

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah, that's good.

SHELLIE: You, you would know this guy, we've met him before.

ZIMMERMAN: Oh, gotcha.

SHELLIE: He's pretty official.

ZIMMERMAN: Yes, I know, I know who you're talking about.

SHELLIE: Yeah.

ZIMMERMAN: We met him outside.

SHELLIE: yeah, yeah.

ZIMMERMAN: I know who you're talking about.

SHELLIE: Mm hmm. It's her cousin, yeah.

ZIMMERMAN: Yep.

SHELLIE: So I, I wasn't sure if you'd be okay with that, but I think as a last resort

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah.

SHELLIE: it'd be great

ZIMMERMAN: Exactly

SHELLIE: what do you think?

ZIMMERMAN: Exactly, yeah.

SHELLIE: Okay, okay, good, so, that's what we're working on, so we got that done, so I did the tax extension, I paid the bills, I figured out everything yesterday, with that whole thing with institution and then um, we did this, so.

ZIMMERMAN: Good job, babe. I'm proud of you.

SHELLIE: Thank you, I'm proud of you. Is there anything else you need me to start doing?

ZIMMERMAN: No, not at all.

SHELLIE: Okay.

ZIMMERMAN: Um, if, if by chance I get bail

SHELLIE: Uh huh

ZIMMERMAN: I, I've been thinking. I don't know who I want to come pick me up.

SHELLIE: I've been working, I've been talking to uh, our safety council about that.

ZIMMERMAN: Okay.

SHELLIE: He's actually um, gonna be available on that day

ZIMMERMAN: Well, I don't

SHELLIE: he made himself available on that day

ZIMMERMAN: I don't want that, I don't want that.

SHELLIE: Why?

ZIMMERMAN: Because I don't wanna endanger him.

SHELLIE: (Laughs) You're so cute.

ZIMMERMAN: No, I'm serious.

SHELLIE: No, he's working it out with a lot of other people.

ZIMMERMAN: Okay.

SHELLIE: Trust me.

ZIMMERMAN: Okay, but you know what I'm thinking?

SHELLIE: What, cutie?

ZIMMERMAN: Best case scenario, and obviously I'll talk to O'Mara about it

SHELLIE: uh huh

ZIMMERMAN: I'm thinking that we should rent a, uh, an SUV

SHELLIE: Mm hmm

ZIMMERMAN: and whoever comes to pick me up, pick me up in the SUV

SHELLIE: uh huh

ZIMMERMAN: and that way if they run the tags or whatever, you know, there's nothing to go back on anyone

SHELLIE: uh huh

ZIMMERMAN: and if you can, find a hotel that's got an attached garage. Remember when we stayed at the um, what was it, the Western in Tampa?

SHELLIE: Mm hmm. Oh, there was a garage.

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah.

SHELLIE: Because our safety council was saying the airport.

ZIMMERMAN: Well the airport's good, but they can still follow you there.

SHELLIE: Mm hmm.

ZIMMERMAN: But, if we go to a hotel that has a garage, and we tell the hotel, like listen, we're gonna be coming here and staying for a few days

SHELLIE: Mm hmm

ZIMMERMAN: we need access to the garage. Then, whoever brings me can just go, whoever picks me up can just go straight into the garage and go into the hotel through there.

SHELLIE: Or transfer you into a different car. Have, like my car waiting, in the garage.

ZIMMERMAN: Either or, yeah.

SHELLIE: Because safety was saying that um, he has a bunch of guys that could move in on it.

ZIMMERMAN: In a positive way?

SHELLIE: Oh, yeah, like

ZIMMERMAN: Okay.

SHELLIE: like stop traffic, like stop people from going in the garage at the airport and everything.

ZIMMERMAN: Oh, okay. Yeah, I'm just worried about, you know, if they know what kind of car you drive.

SHELLIE: Well, that's true. You're right. They would be looking for the car you went in on though.

ZIMMERMAN: We could have two cars. We could have two rented cars.

SHELLIE: That's true. The one that we're gonna drive in

ZIMMERMAN: Mm hmm

SHELLIE: so leave mine home

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah

SHELLIE: get the one that we're gonna drive in, and then get the SUV, I don't know if they black out SUV's though

(Voices blended, inaudible)

ZIMMERMAN: doesn't matter

SHELLIE: Oh, okay. 'Cause you could always like lay down or something.

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah, exactly. Well, I have my hoodie.

SHELLIE: Mm hmm, mm hmm. So.

ZIMMERMAN: So.

SHELLIE: Okay. So I'll start looking into rental car companies.

ZIMMERMAN: Okay. Okey dokey.

SHELLIE: Today.

ZIMMERMAN: Sounds good.

SHELLIE: Um, is there anything you're gonna need me to get you? I'm gonna get you a suitcase.

ZIMMERMAN: Uh, yeah, I guess (stammering) I have pretty much everything I need there.

SHELLIE: I know, but I figure, I need one 'cause I don't have one

ZIMMERMAN: Right.

SHELLIE: I'm gonna get you one so that you can be mobile at any time.

ZIMMERMAN: Okay.

SHELLIE: Because even though your stuff is where you want it to be, you know, at any time you might not need to be, might need to be somewhere else.

ZIMMERMAN: (Inaudible) Well, I suggest Sam's Club or like

SHELLIE: That's what we're, that's what we're doing

ZIMMERMAN: Yeah. Or like TJMaxx or something.

SHELLIE: That's ex-, (chuckles, to Susie) he said I suggest Sam's Club or TJMaxx. (laughs) We have it on our to-do list. TJMaxx first to see how cheap they are, and then Sam's to, to double check.

ZIMMERMAN: (Inaudible)

SHELLIE: We think so much alike, you little cutie.

ZIMMERMAN: TJMaxx, sometimes they're beat up a little.

SHELLIE: Yeah. Well I'll look and see if there's any, like good deals, like sets or anything.

ZIMMERMAN: Okay.

SHELLIE: Don't you worry.

ZIMMERMAN: Anything new on the news?

SHELLIE: Um, no. Anything new on the news, Susie?

SUSIE: (in background) No, thank goodness.

SHELLIE: No, thank

RECORDING: One minute remaining.

(Voices in background, Inaudible)

ZIMMERMAN: Well,

SHELLIE: Alright honey, I love you.

ZIMMERMAN: I'll make some more calls and then I'll call you back.

SHELLIE: Okay, cutie. Call Ken.

ZIMMERMAN: I will. Love you.

SHELLIE: Alright, I love you honey

ZIMMERMAN: Love you too.

SHELLIE: Bye.

End of Recording.
